Scholarship Description

St. Anastasia Catholic Church in St. Augustine Florida has established a scholarship in honor of St. Thomas Aquinas, the great educator who sought to instruct beginners in the faith using natural reason and speculative theology. He is also the patron of Catholic Schools. The scholarship will be awarded annually. It is funded out of the operating budget of he parish as well as donations from parishioners thereby determining the number of awards each year. The scholarship will be paid annually in September directly to either Cathedral Parish School or St. Joseph Academy on behalf of the student recipient.

Eligibility

- The parent/guardians of the student applicant must be registered parishioners of St. Anastasia Church for the previous twelve months.
- The student applicant or at least one parent/guardian must be active in a St. Anastasia parish ministry demonstrating their commitment to practicing the faith.
- The student applicant must demonstrate qualities of good character, leadership and Christian faith appropriate for his/her age.

A student applicant who is entering grades five through twelve must write a 250 word (or less) testimony of how his/her Catholic education is helping integrate the faith into the student's life.

A student applicant who is entering grades kindergarten through fourth grade must have his/her parent/guardian write a 250 word (or less) testimony as to why they are sending the student applicant to Catholic School.

St. Thomas Aquinas Scholarship Application

This scholarship is made available for all students entering Cathedral Parish School or St. Joseph Academy.

NOTE: ALL students chosen for the scholarships must provide a written reply regarding acceptance within 2 weeks of notification. If a reply is not received, it is presumed the student is not accepting the scholarship which will be awarded to another candidate.
